

A. Yes, I know it will be the best for everybody, as it was sold at public sale when my parents bought it and it only brought $2,500.00.

Q. Do you have a written contract for sale, the sale with the Hardys?

A. Yes, it is filed in the papers there, somewhere.

Q. What are the terms of the sale?

A. $3,500.00 cash when the sale is ratified and they pay $1,000.00 down payment.

Q. What, if anything, do the other heirs think of this sale?

A. They all agree that it should be sold at that price and you have their names, and they are anxious to get it over with.

Q. Are the heirs at law which you have mentioned married or single and if they are married give the names of their respective husbands or wives?

A. Yes, they are all married and their husbands or wives are: myself, Nellie Wachter and my husband's name is Wesly Wachter, Russell Rippeon whose wife's name is Margaret Rippeon, William Rippeon unmarried, Beatrice Frederick whose husband's name is Dan Frederick, Henry Rippeon whose wife's name is Elsie Rippeon, Virgie Sloper whose husband's name is Curtis Sloper, Charles Rippeon, unmarried, Jennie Bahr whose husband's name is Edward Bahr, Preston Rippeon whose wife's name is Susie Rippeon, Sterling Rippeon whose wife's name is Gloria Rippeon, Needa Grant whose husband's name is John W. Grant, Mary Rippeon, widow, Pauline White whose husband's name is William White, Joan Ann Chambers, an infant, and Richard Rippeon, an infant.

To the general interrogatory.

A. That's all.

Mrs Nellie Wachter
